We at Dynamix Group have been setting standards and creating dream homes since decades. Set within a secluded coconut grove, 'Aldeia de Goa' is the perfect setting for a dream home.

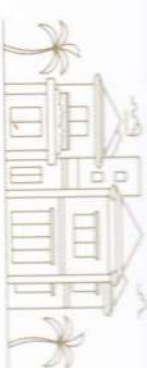

Frangipani Signature Villas at 'Aldeia de Goa' pay homage to the famed Indo-Portuguese architectural style. Dipped in rich heritage and old-world charm, our signature villas transform the property into a space that feels resort like and homely at the same time.

Each villa is created with respect to the owner's individuality and lifestyle with great emphasis on privacy. Designed to create a homely environment in an opulent setting with carefully thought out details, these villas set new standards in beach side luxury.

There is an overall sense of fluidity with nature and the balance of opulent luxury and homely living. When how the house feels is as important as how the house looks you have the perfect dream home.
