- (v) Prior to the registration of Phase I under RERA, the Co-Developers shall mutually arrive at a common draft of the agreement for sale and other related documents to be executed for sale of the Premises to third party purchasers of the Project (including Owner's and Developer's Premises). All agreements shall be tri-partite agreements signed by (a) the Owner as the Co-Developer, the Developer as the Confirming Party and the Purchaser in respect of the Owners Premises and; (b) by the Developer in his capacity as the Co-Developer, the Owner as the Confirming Party and the Purchaser in respect of the Developers Premises.
- (vi) It is expressly clarified that the Developer will be entitled to rely upon the POA for execution of Agreements with the Purchasers of Developers' Premises. The Developer will also execute a power of attorney in favour of the Owner to enable the Owner to execute the Agreements with the Purchasers of the Owners' Premises.
- (xii) It is agreed that the Parties shall not give possession of their respective Premises in a particular Phase to any third party purchaser/allottee prior to the Developer obtaining a Certificate from the Project Architect and acknowledgement for submission of application for issue of Occupancy/Completion Certificate from the Concerned Authorities for that Phase.

6. OWNER'S OBLIGATIONS

The Owner shall fulfil the following obligations:

- (i) The Owner shall at its own costs and expenses be responsible for maintaining clear and marketable title to the said Land throughout and to deal with and resolve any issues / defects (if any) pertaining to the said Land including any litigation, notices, penalty, breach of provisions of any applicable law, rules, regulations and/or any terms and conditions under any order passed in respect of title to the said Land and any claims from any person or otherwise howsoever in relation to the said Land which may arise pursuant to signing of these presents. Any claims in relation to the title shall be settled by the Owner at the Owner's Costs and the Developer shall not be required to bear any costs and expenses for this reason. The Owner shall at their cost and expenses shall be responsible for resolving any disputes / claims / litigations in respect of the title to the said Land, including if such claims affect the construction and development of the Project provided no such claim is received because of any act or omission on the part of the Developer and/or its personnel during the course of undertaking development activities on the said Land. Further, in the event there is any delay due to stoppage of work on account of an injunction from the court due to defect only on the title of the Owner arising post signing of these presents, the Owner will be solely liable and responsible for such delay and the Owner shall have to bear all the penalties payable under RERA to the Purchasers of the premises in the Project of the Developers' Premises and Owners' Premises and also bear all the losses suffered by the Developer on account of such delay, if Owner is unable to clear such injunction within 60 days from the date of intimation of such injunction.

- (ii) The Owner shall ensure that the Marketing of the said Owners Premises shall be in accordance with RERA, any amendment thereto and/or any other law made applicable in present or in future and the Developer shall not at anytime be held responsible and/or liable for non-compliance in any manner whatsoever
- (iii) In the event of any cancellation of any Agreement/Deeds forming part of the Owners Premises, the refund of the monies on account of such cancellation shall be done solely by the Owner and the Owner shall have no recourse to the Developer for the same.
- (iv) To assist and provide all co-operation to the Developer for the Marketing and branding of the Project without any cost to the Owner.
- (v) The Owner shall fully co-operate with the Developer in the entire development process but the Owner shall not be responsible for obtaining any sanctions or Approvals.

the Force Majeure Event and to resume performance of such of its obligations affected thereby; and

(e) Any other relevant information concerning the Force Majeure Event.

(iii) If the Affected Party is rendered wholly or partially unable to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement because of a Force Majeure Event, the performance of such obligation shall be suspended only to the extent it is unable to perform the same on account of such Force Majeure Event and will revive immediately upon cessation of the Force Majeure Event, provided that:

(a) Due notice of the Force Majeure Event has been given as required by the preceding clause;

(b) The excuse from performance shall be of no greater scope and of no longer duration than is necessitated by the Force Majeure Event;

(c) The Affected Party has taken all reasonable efforts to avoid, prevent, mitigate and limit damage, if any, caused or is likely to be caused to the Project as a result of the Force Majeure Event and to restore the Project in accordance with good industry practice and its relative obligations under this Agreement;

(d) When the Affected Party is able to resume performance of its obligations under this Agreement, it shall give to the other Parties written notice to that effect and shall promptly resume performance of its obligations hereunder, the non-issue of such notice being no excuse for any delay for resuming such performance; and

- (e) The Affected Party shall continue to perform such of its obligations which are not affected by the Force Majeure Event and which are capable of being performed in accordance with this Agreement.

13. EVENT OF DEFAULT

- (a) Subject to Force Majeure Events, in the event either Party fails or defaults to observe or perform any of its roles, terms, conditions or covenants or representations contained in this Agreement or commits or allows to be committed a breach or default of this Agreement ("Defaulting Party") then, the non-defaulting Party ("Non-Defaulting Party") shall be entitled to issue a notice in writing ("Cure Notice") to the Defaulting Party to cure to the satisfaction of the Non-Defaulting Party such failure, default and/or breach within a period of 60 (sixty) days from the date of the receipt by the Defaulting Party of the Default Cure Notice ("Default Cure Period"). If the Defaulting Party is unable to or fails to cure to the satisfaction of the Non-Defaulting Party such failure, default and/or breach within the Default Cure Period, then the same shall be construed as a default of the Defaulting Party ("Event of Default").

- (b) On the occurrence of the Event of Default, the Non-Defaulting Party will be entitled to refer the matter to the arbitrator as set out in clause 14 below (the "Arbitrator") to determine the relief, if any, to be awarded to the Non-Defaulting Party on account of the failure by the Defaulting Party as mentioned in clause 13 (a) above and the just and equitable way forward in the circumstances. The Defaulting Party will also be entitled to approach the Arbitrator or make a counter-claim challenging the enforcement by the Non-Defaulting Party of any of its rights including a claim for damages. In such cases, the Arbitrator will finally decide and dispose of the matter in accordance with Arbitration & Conciliation act and for this purpose the Arbitrator shall issue necessary directions to the Parties to ensure that the necessary pleadings are filed before the Arbitrator in a time-bound manner, which will be strictly adhered to.
- (c) After considering all the critical points, the Parties hereby authorise the Arbitrator to grant the relief to the Parties in the most equitable manner and to decide ex aequo et bono and amiable compositeur as set out under Section 28(2) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, taking into consideration the economic interest of the Parties and other relevant factors.

14. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

All disputes, differences, claims and questions of whatsoever nature which may arise between the Parties hereto, with respect to this Agreement or the construction or application thereof, or any clause or thing herein contained, or in respect of the rights, entitlements, duties, responsibilities and obligations of either Party hereunder, or as to any act or omission of any Party, or as to any other matter in anywise relating to these presents, shall be referred to a sole arbitrator to be mutually appointed by the Parties and in the event the Parties fail to agree upon an arbitrator then the arbitrator shall be appointed as provided under the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The seat and venue of arbitration shall be Mumbai. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 or any re-enactment or statutory modification thereof for the time being in force and rules framed thereunder. The language of arbitration shall be English. The Award/s of the arbitrator shall be reasoned and in writing. The arbitrator shall also decide on the costs of the arbitration proceedings. The Parties shall submit to the arbitrator's/arbitral panel's award which shall be enforceable in any competent court of law.

15. CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-DISCLOSURE

Each Party shall keep all information and other materials passing between it and the other Parties in relation to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as well as the existence and the terms and conditions of this Agreement (the "Confidential Information") confidential and shall not, without the prior written consent of the other Party, divulge the Confidential Information to any other Person or use the Confidential Information other than for carrying out the purposes of this Agreement except:

- (i) To the extent that such Confidential Information is required or requested to be disclosed by any Applicable Law or any applicable regulatory requirements or by any regulatory
