HISTORY OF FORM III UNDER GOA, DAMAN AND DIU LAND REVENUE CODE 1969

While preparing the Record of Rights the details are sought under Rule 5 of Goa Daman and Diu Land Revenue Code (Record of Rights and Register of Cultivation) Rules 1969) from the persons who have interest in the land . When they are received, they are compiled in Form III. They are checked by the Officers and objections are called upon keeping the Index open. The objections if any are heard as Dispute cases. The corrected draft is again kept open for inspection of public and upon promulgation; records are maintained in Form I.

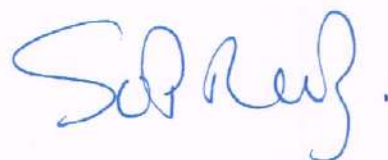

The entry in Form I after promulgation gives presumption of its correction under Section 105 of Goa Daman And Diu Land Revenue

SOP Ref.

Code 1969. The entry shows possession of the persons whose names are entered as occupant and such possession is fortified by the records of Survey. The uninterrupted possession culminates into the title by adverse possession as per the law.
